

Society for Post-Medieval Archaeology

New Membership Application Form

The Society for Post-Medieval Archaeology promotes the material study of European societies in the modern world through publications, conferences and other media, and is concerned with the period which saw :

- the transition from medieval to industrial society
- the new values of Renaissance and Reformation
- the shift from collective to individual mentalities

- increasing social segregation
- new notions of privacy, family, gender and space
- global expansion
- revolutions in the modes and scales of production

The Society for Post-Medieval Archaeology appeals to a wide cross section of people, including professional and amateur archaeologists, historians, academics and non-specialists.

Notes

You must pay an amount of UK income tax and/or capital gains tax at least equal to the tax that the charity reclaims on your donations in the tax year (currently 28p for each £1 you give).

You can cancel this declaration at any time by notifying the Hon. Treasurer of the Society.

If in the future your circumstances change and you no longer pay tax on your income and capital gains equal to the tax that the charity reclaims, you can cancel your declaration.

If you pay tax at the higher rate you can claim further tax relief in your Self-Assessment tax return.

If you are unsure whether your donations qualify for Gift aid tax relief, contact the Hon. Treasurer for advice.
